Looking for a new opportunity with a good family!

[] Childcare

Hello everybody! My name is Sandra, I'm Spanish and I'm 30 years old. I currently live in Luxembourg (Merl) and I'm looking for a new family for start on September. I have a degree in classical philology and I am currently finishing my studies in early childhood education in addition to other courses related to education. I have working with children's for many years, I started helping an ONG by disturbing food and teaching Spanish, I was an extracurricular instrutor in a school (helped with homewords), I'm a skating instructor, I was an aupair for 2 years with a good family where I took care of 3 children (4, 7, 10 years old) and currently I work as a nanny taking care of 2 children (4 and 1 years old) where I also do basic housework I like spending time with them, playing games, help with homeworks or studying, doing crafts... I'm creative, a kind person and paciente. I'm good at cooking, responsable, puntual, and I have drive licence. I have references. If you're interested and you want know more about me, just ask! Greetings, Sandra.
