

Teacher of Spanish

[] Tutoring and education courses

iHola! Would you like to learn Spanish? Maybe to improve your grades at school? Maybe to communicate to people during holidays? Maybe to enjoy and understand better Latin music? Maybe to increase your chances in your professional career? Maybe to expand your business to the rest of the world? I'm a native Spanish speaker from Barcelona, Spain. I have a university degree in Teaching and I've been teaching Spanish as a foreign language for more than 6 years, using different strategies and methodologies to adapt my lesson plans to the specific goals that you could have. Whatever your age or reason might be, I'm here to help!
