

Full time nanny who likes to travel

[ ] Job offers

Hello, We are looking for someone who could help us with our 22 months son. As right now we are traveling a lot and have 3 flats in 3 different places, we are looking for someone who could travel with us. During the week mostly we are in Luxembourg but the weekends we are traveling and also during the summer season. That means when we are in Luxembourg the person doesn't need to live in our place but need to be available each time we travel. We are looking for someone young and experienced with young children. The job would be: - prepare food - housekeeping - make shopping - pick up our son from the creche - stay with him during the afternoon (playground, give a bath etc)
