Looking for a host family

[] Childcare

Dear future host family I am currently an Au pair in the Netherlands it’s been 11 months that I have been this side my year is almost over. I am 27 years old currently looking after 3 toddlers aged 6,4,2 years old busy little kids. I am originally from South Africa. From being on this cultural exchange program has taught me so much and my passion to look after kids not just that but also the relationship I build with them. I have over 3 years childcare experience and a great reference that speaks for itself I am available on Skype for any questions, hope to hear from you soon regards Kiki Michael
