Looking for a Nanny job

[] Childcare

I am Joema, 29 years old, single, Filipina, can speak and write English very well. I can also speak some Italian, Danish, Dutch, German. French. I have a huge interest in learning different cultures and I believe that being Au Pair or working abroad is a good opportunity for me to learn and grow as a person. I have experience as an Au Pair in Denmark for 2 years, 1 year in the Netherlands. I am good in taking care of the kids and cleaning the house. I can also cook (Filipino and Italian foods). I am kind, honest, responsible, and energetic person. I am currently an Au Pair in Luxembourg and I am searching for a family here to hire me as real Nanny that works 40 hours a week so after my contract ends this coming July 2020, I have a place to stay/work. I am looking forward to your response and I hope that we will have a good relationship during my stay with you. Thank you so much. :)
