I've been teaching English since 2016. I've taught English to children and adults of all levels from over a hundred countries. I specialize in business English and conversational English. I create a personalized English learning plan based on your level, goals and needs. I graduated with a degree in Psychology from Southwestern University in the Philippines and I also studied Theology in Norway. I had worked as a customer service representative in which I handled American customers via phone. My major goal is to boost your confidence in speaking English so that you will communicate effectively in every situation and I am here to help you enrich your English fluency. So, what will happen if you decide to choose me as your English teacher? Well, right after you book a trial lesson, I'm going to send you a comprehensive level test and based on your test results you will see exactly where you need to improve and from every mistake you make I will be able to tailor your English lessons. Then, during our first lesson I'm going to evaluate your speaking skills and we'll discuss the areas which you need to improve. On top of that, we're going to get to know each other and discuss your learning goals and needs and we'll work together to achieve them. Message Me Now!
