

Looking for nanny/domestic help

[] Job offers

My husband and I are looking for a caring and knowledgeable nanny to help us with our first newborn baby due in February 2022, on a part-time basis (approx 20h/week, for 1-3 months, exact duration TBC). Tasks will include changing/bathing the baby, taking him for walks, looking after him, but also dealing with light cleaning/domestic tasks (e.g. cooking, grocery shopping, laundry, light cleaning, etc.). We are Italian and speak English and French fluently, so we are looking for someone who speaks at least one of these languages - any other language being a definitive plus, especially if it's Luxembourgish and/or German. Driving licence and own car would be ideal, as we live in Steinsel. Prior experience with newborn babies in particular is highly desirable.
