Babysitter for 1yo in March needed

[] Job offers

I’m looking for a babysitter for my 1yo. I’ll need your service during work hours every day for 20-25 March. I suggest to meet with you a few days/weeks earlier as I need to see my baby’s reaction to you. Earning her trust will take some time as she is not getting along with new people easily. Aside that, she is curious, independent and calm baby. Her favorite activities are playing with not_toys and watch the pictures in the books. I expect you to be easy-going, calm, patient and fun person. And non-allergic as we have a cat. And obviously, you’ll need to protect the cat from the baby (and othervise)
