

Experienced, caring nanny looking for host family

[] Childcare

Dear Host Family, Good day! Hope everything goes well. I am looking for a host family either to work as nanny or housekeeper or both. My contract ended in September 2023 in Luxembourg as an aupair. Currently, I am in my home country and looking for the possibility to go back to Luxembourg. I have 5 years of experience taking care of children with different ages and experienced with doing household chores as well. Four years ago, I was an aupair of a loving, generous, kind, active family in Oslo, Norway. I looked after 3 girls-since the eldest was 7 and the twins were 5 years old. In their day-to-day basis, I helped with preparing breakfast, bringing and picking them to the train station, prepare the kids' lunchboxes, help them to get dress in the morning and for their activities, do some light household chores such as making the beds, tidying bedrooms, playroom and kitchen, cooking, ironing, cleaning and occasionally babysitting(payed). I have attended language course during this period. I really enjoyed and treasured the beautiful experience during my stay with them. Then, I moved to Copenhagen, Denmark and stayed 2 years with a loving, caring, generous and easygoing host family and helped with looking after 2 girls since they were 3 yrs old and 10 months old. Last year, I moved to Luxembourg, Luxembourg as aupair again with a generous and kind family with 2 girls-since the eldest was 5 and the second was 4 months old. Aside from my experiences here in Europe, I took care of my 2 younger sisters when they were young and also my nieces and nephews back in the Philippines. I will be delighted to offer my services to your family. This could be one of my great experiences. You can expect that I will be responsible and trustworthy as a nanny or housekeeper or both. Glad to discuss with you more of the task and responsibilities I am able to do. I am the kind of person who is sweet, caring, organized, honest, responsible, respectful, positive, happy, patient, kind, friendly, and active. I love sports, outdoor activities, adventures and hikes. In addition, I am easy to talk to if you ask favor. I believe that everything goes well with an open communication, trust and respect. Thus, we can have a good relationship. I can also provide you my CV and references. Thank you so much for your time reading and I'm happy to hear from you. Best regards, Amilyn
