I'm super delightful to be part of the family, I'm a creative and innovative thinker who enjoy new ideas and finding creative solutions to complex problems, empowering to be independent, self reliance can help accomplish anything we set our mind to become. I believe that effective communication is a key to a successful family, so my motive is to build, create and be part of a successful family like yours. I'm fun to be with, open minded, energetic, reliable, and very active, me with the family together will have so much fun and good memories, I also love to learn new languages, I hope I will be lucky to learn and add one to mine from you and be able to teach as well. I am superb in taking proper care of children because they are so amazing , cute and intelligent , adorable creature. I've had so many experience and lot of fun with elderly and family's. "Hiring a good teacher and friend and not just a baby sitter" that is my saying. Problem solving,interpersonal, decision making, physical stamina, creative thinking , compassion and empathy, I acquire all this skills by myself as I learn from my experience . I am open to any question, you can know more about me when we chat more. Looking forward to hearing back from my lovely family. Email: Oyewunmi.aminat01@gmail.com
