With love and experience: a reliable nanny for you

[] Pet-sitting

Hello! My name is Kateryna I have been surrounded by animals since I was a child. I grew up in a family with many different pets: cats, dogs, rabbits, parrots, hamsters, and even an owl! Each of them had their own unique personalities and needs, so from a young age I learned to understand and care for animals. In addition, our neighbor had chickens and ducks, and I enjoyed helping to care for them and playing with them. My experience as a pet sitter strengthened my love for this profession. I was involved in feeding, walking, playing, and monitoring the health of pets. It is important for me to not only perform basic tasks, but also to pay attention to the emotional comfort of the animals so that they feel happy and loved even when their owners are not around. My main motivation is my love for animals and the desire to help their owners be confident that their pets are in good hands. I only accept vaccinated animals to ensure safety. I will be happy to discuss your needs and get to know your pet. With me, your pets will be surrounded by care and warmth!
